Spiritual Warfare Topic: County by County We fight

First Things First:

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights,

Unalienable Rights:

Unalienable Rights - Absolute Rights - Natural Rights

The absolute rights of individuals may be resolved into the right of personal security, the right of personal liberty, and the right to acquire and enjoy property. These rights are declared to be natural, inherent, and unalienable. Atchison & N. R. Co. v. Baty, 6 Neb. 37, 40, 29 Am. Rep. 356.

By the "absolute rights" of individuals is meant those which are so in their primary and strictest sense, such as would belong to their persons merely in a state of nature, and which every man is entitled to enjoy, whether out of society or in it. The rights of personal security, of personal liberty, and private property do not depend upon the Constitution for their existence. They existed before the Constitution was made, or the government was organized. These are what are termed the "absolute rights" of individuals, which belong to them independently of all government, and which all governments which derive their power from the consent of the governed were instituted to protect. People v. Berberich (N. Y.) 20 Barb. 224, 229; McCartee v. Orphan Asylum Soc. (N. Y.) 9 Cow. 437, 511, 513, 18 Am. Dec. 516; People v. Toynbee (N. Y.) 2 Parker, Cr. R. 329, 369, 370 (quoting 1 Bl. Comm. 123).

Chancellor Kent (2 Kent, Comm. 1) defines the "absolute rights" of individuals as the right of personal security, the right of personal liberty, and the right to acquire and enjoy property. These rights have been justly considered and frequently declared by the people of this country to be natural, inherent, and inalienable, and it may be stated as a legal axiom [A principle that is not disputed; a maxim] that since the great laboring masses of our country have little or no property but their labor, and the free right to employ it to their own best interests and advantage, it must be considered that the constitutional inhibition against all invasion of property without due process of law was as fully intended to embrace and protect that property as any of the accumulations it may have gained. In re Jacobs (N. Y.) 33 Hun, 374, 378.

EXERCISE YOUR UNALIENABLE RIGHTS WITH RESPECT FOR OTHERS AND NEVER LET GOVERNMENT DEPRIVE YOU OF THEM!

What a PA Judge Ruled...

Pennsylvania coronavirus restrictions deemed unconstitutional, federal judge rules

Governors cannot dictate edicts, mandates, and rules to tell you to follow CDC guidelines, now the courts will weigh in (remember, Trump has over 200 judge appointees in place)

Only legislators can make and enact laws...

What states will redress the tyranny next? Will it be yours? Only if you redress your grievances. Your silence is complicity to letting them rule over you.

My State example: (how you fight back) peacefully and meaningfully:

MAINE:

Article 1 Section 1. Natural rights. All people are born equally free and independent, and have certain natural, inherent and unalienable rights, among which are those of enjoying and defending life and liberty, acquiring, possessing and protecting property, and of pursuing and obtaining safety and happiness.

Your body, your business(es), your freedom of life cannot be infringed by government...

Section 2. Power inherent in people. All power is inherent in the people; all free governments are founded in their authority and instituted for their benefit; they have therefore an unalienable and indefeasible right to institute government, and to alter, reform, or totally change the same, when their safety and happiness require it.

Section 6-A. Discrimination against persons prohibited. No person shall be deprived of life, liberty or property without due process of law, nor be denied the equal protection of the laws, nor be denied the enjoyment of that person's civil rights or be discriminated against in the exercise thereof.

Section 15. Right of petition. The people have a right at all times in an orderly and peaceable manner to assemble to consult upon the common good, to give instructions to their representatives, and to request, of either department of the government by petition or remonstrance, redress of their wrongs and grievances.

Take some time and find these sections in your state constitution...

PRAYER POINTS

Deut 20:4

“For the Lord your God is he that goeth with you, to fight for you against your enemies, to save you.”

Heavenly Father, give us greater clarity of Your presence in our lives, and through the Holy Spirit, we never walk alone. Allow us to hear Your voice through the chaos so that we will walk calmly and with purpose as we enter into the fights set before us. Humble us to know it is only through You that we can beat the enemy and restore Your Kingdom on earth.

Hebrews 10:24-25

“And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works: Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.”

- Lord Jesus, we ask for your intervention in helping each of us in developing your 1st Century Ekklesias around our great nation and extending into the entire world. Prepare us to receive the lost sheep as they look to you and find Ekklesias that welcomes them with love and gets them involved to develop good works county by county.

Psalm 133:1

“Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!”

- Father God, rise up more leaders to lead Your earthen Ekklesias so that our assembling as a community in God and with God will grow and flourish, especially as former church goers leave those institutions designed to control their sheep rather than grow unity for Kingdom expansion.

Psalm 91: 11-12

“For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways. They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.”

-Jesus, awaken us to your holy angels and their charge over us. Strengthen our resolve for activation in our towns and counties. The fight is at our doorstep, yet we do not walk alone. No impediment can stop our efforts to restore Your Kingdom and with angelic protection, we can accomplish what you sent us here to do. We pray our purpose is received and accepted by those lost in the darkness as we bring light, angelic support, and protection to those in and those returning to your Kingdom. We ask all these prayers to heard in Your throne room in Jesus' name. Amen.
